A skateboarder is captured in mid-air, performing a trick on a metal rail in a skatepark. The skater is shirtless, wearing dark pants and sneakers, and is leaning forward with his arms outstretched. The rail is supported by wooden posts. The skatepark features concrete ramps and rails, some with graffiti. In the background, there are trees, a fence, and a building under a twilight sky. The word "Germany" is overlaid in large white text across the center of the image.

The Future Of Work

An aerial night view of a city skyline, densely packed with illuminated buildings and streets. The lights create a vibrant, glowing effect against the dark sky. The text "Connected World" is overlaid in the center in a large, white, sans-serif font.

Connected World

A serene scene of two people in a small boat on a calm lake, surrounded by lush green trees. The word "Collaboration" is overlaid in large white text. The image captures a peaceful moment in nature, with the water reflecting the surrounding greenery and the figures in the boat. The lighting is soft, suggesting a late afternoon or early morning setting. The overall mood is calm and collaborative.

Collaboration

“The largest factor in predicting group intelligence was the equality of conversational turn taking.”

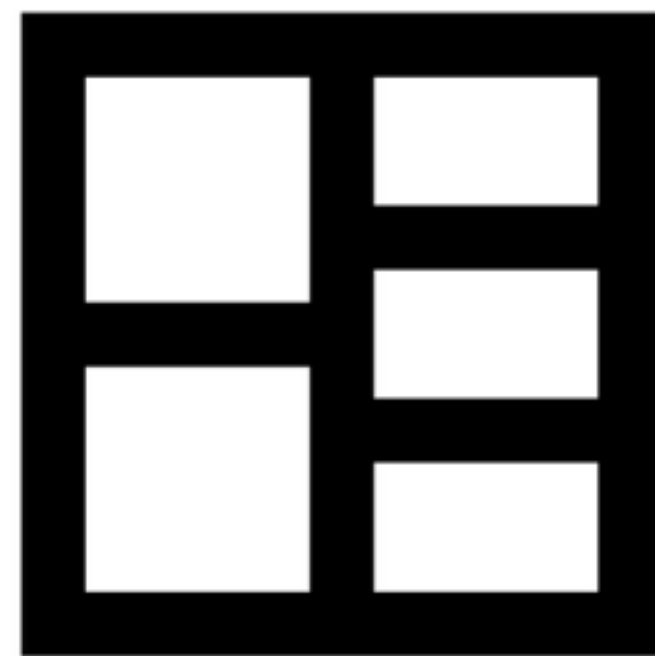

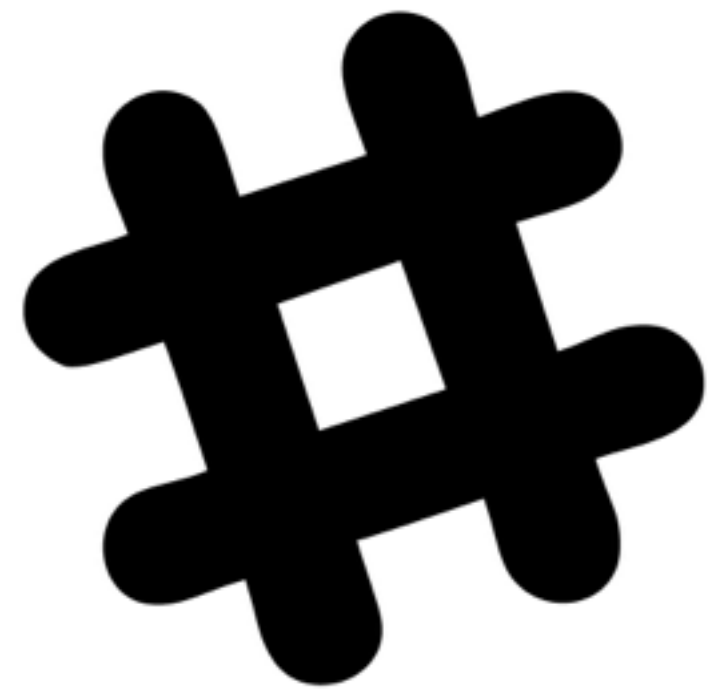

- Alex “Sandy” Pentland, Social Physics
